

HOW TO GET TO GENOHN'S R&D OFFICE (GHENT)

Coming from Dampoort train station (on foot):

- Exit at the front of the station and go under the railway bridge on the right
- You will reach Dendermondsesteenweg
- Keep following until you reach number 48 and at the corner you will see a Pharmacy
- After the pharmacy, you will find some barriers: enter and continue towards the L-shaped building B
- Ring the bell marked Genohm in the nook of building B
- Beware that the Genohm bell is mounted on the front of the pole, not on the left side with the others
